HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1906.

THE PRINCE'S VISIT.

In another column a correspondent passes some strictures upon the officials in regard to the reticence which is being observed in connection with the preparations to welcome H. R. H. Prince Arthur of Connaught, when he arrives at Hongkong. Yesterday we expressed our own belief that there was needless secrecy being observed. On such occasions as these cordial co-operation between the officials and the public goes far towards ensuring success. Of course we know that the authorities are animated by the best motives, but good motives cannot excuse unwise policy, and we consider that the time has come when the people of Hongkong should know what steps are being taken to ensure a welcome being given to our Royal visitor which shall be worthy of the premier port of the world. Hongkong yields to no other part of His Majesty's dominions in its loyalty to the throne and we all wish to give expression to that loyalty in the only manner that is open to us. Mere official welcoming however carefully planned, is of necessity chilled by formality, but voluntary demonstrations are valuable by reason of their warmth and self-evident genui-ness. There is a danger, as our correspondent points out, that the people who have not been favoured with a knowledge of what arrangements are being made may neglect to prepare illuminations or decorations, not because of any disinclination to honour His Highness but simply because they are unaware whether the scope of whatever the Government is doing in the same connection renders individual effort necessary. However we have every confidence that this little difficulty will speedily adjust itself. The main point is that the reception should be worthy of the Colony. There is magnificent material to work on, fortunately we are not a poor community, and there is no lack of enthusiasm. Consequently we confidently trust that, whatever form the functions and their settings may assume, they will not only be honoured by the Prince's approval but be regarded with a certain degree of justifiable pride by ourselves.

THE GOVERNMENT'S WAYS.

When the disgusted poet sat down deliberately and wrote with obvious and picturesque emphasis that "The blanky Government's blanky ways are something 'blanky' sickenin'," he prebably felt and meant what he wrote.

The same thoughts, though lacking the same forcible method of expression, have no doubt been given free voice to in Hongkong of late, for our Government has pursued courses in respect of public questions that are not at all in accord with the usual alert and vigorous style of His Excellency the Governor. Elsewhere we have made reference to the incomprehensible and inexplicable secrecy attending the arrangement of a reception to Prince Arthur of Connaught, and what inspires us to write now is the sorry spectacle made yesterday when an absolutely unnecessary election was

LOCAL AND COAST NEWS.

Kobe is to have electric tramways.

The Deutsch-Asiatische Bank is about to open a branch at Kobe.

The barque "Challenger," scuttled at Minato on fire, is now a total wreck.

The Japanese Training Squadron is to go to Australia instead of to England.

The net profit of the Mitsui Bishi Bank for the past half-year was ¥470,550.

The steamer "Ryusei Maru," recently sunk in a collision off Shimoda, has been refloated.

A severe thunderstorm passed over Yokohama on the 11th and 12th, and there was a landslide on the Bluff.

Only 55 people recorded their votes yesterday at the election of the ratepayers' representatives to the Sanitary Board. Mr

Humphreys polled 39 and Mr Shelton

Hooper 25.

Several Chinese were fined at the Magistrate's this morning, for selling fire crackers in the street. Crackers are only allowed to be sold in shops and must be kept in glass covered cases if they are exposed to view.

A New Market.

A communication was received at today's meeting of the Sanitary Board stating that the new market at Mong Kok Tsui was now ready to be taken over by the Board. The market will have 20 vegetable stalls, four for poultry and 16 for beef.

Mining in Yunnan.

The Mining office of Yunnan has wired to the Waiwupu that a French subject intends to open a copper mine in Southern Yunnan. As the man has no concession, the Waiwupu is requested to inform the French Minister that the man should be prohibited from working the mine.

Trout for the Philippines.

In compliance with a request from the Philippines, the Japanese Government has sent over a quantity of trout eggs, from the Japanese Marine Products School hatch-eries, in charge of a graduate. The eggs will be placed on ice during the trip to prevent premature hatching, and, after arrival, are expected to hatch out in the proper temperature in about 15 days when the fish will be set out in nurseries prior to being distributed in selected rivers.

Match Monopoly in Japan.

It is reported that the scheme for the amalgamation of all the match factories in Japan has been recently completed, and that the conversion of the business into a Government monopoly is expected as soon as the Diet has passed the necessary legislation. The Japan Times states, however, that fears are entertained for the passage of the Bill, because there is very strong opposition in certain quarters, including sections of all the political parties.

If the scheme fails after all, it will mean a perfect panic in the trade, and the bankruptcy of several firms. In particular,

Chinese firms which have laid in stocks, anticipating a rise of price after the legal establishment of the monopoly, will be landed in great difficulties. The result would be no less than "slaughter" sales of stocks of matches, as well as lowering of quality, and consequent diminution of export trade. For these considerations, the Government authorities are said to be as anxious for the passage of the Bill as are the promoters of the amalgamation.

Official Secrets.

The arrangements being made for the entertainment of Prince Arthur of Connaught—we presume, without authority, that arrangements are being made—are still shrouded in mystery. It is rumoured, however, that the scaffolding being erected round the Clock Tower, the Post Office and similar structures is part of the general scheme. Blake Pier has also received some attention which is semi-officially stated to be in honour of the Prince's visit, as also are the structures that are being erected over the streets in various places. The idea of the scaffolding above-mentioned no public official can be induced to divulge, but it is thought possible that it may be for the purpose of illuminating, although,

The League Competition.

The League matches on Saturday resulted in the Army Staff, Civil Service and Hongkong "A" being defeated by Kowloon, Craigengower and Police respectively. Kowloon and the Royal Garrison Artillery appear to have the deciding of the competition between them, with the odds in favour of the Kowloons. The R. G. A. have been beaten once and have a draw against them, while Kowloon has only a defeat to the debit. All the other teams have been beaten at least three times. On February 3 the two teams meet, while by a strange coincidence the last match of the competition, on March 31, is between them. Of course both teams may not continue in the way they have been doing and the other teams may retrieve their position.

The scores for Saturday's matches were:-

CIVIL SERVICE V. CRAIGENGOWER.

Craigengower won by 58 runs.

CRAIGENGOWER: J. D. Kinnaid, 7; J. W. Stewart, 1; M. E. Asger, 25; R. Bass, 0; L. A. Rose, 0; L. E. Lamont, 0; J. Fairholm, 8; E. Irving, 21; R. Panton, 12; R. B. Cooper, 0; E. S. Ford, not out 0; Sundries 6; Total 64.
